A Successful Musical.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Ingalls entertained on Monday evening at their pretty home in Kaimuki, at a musical in honor of their houseguest, Miss Julia Klumpke, who is a violinist of note. Miss Klumpke is a sister of Miss Anna Klumpke, the famous artist who visited here some two years ago. To speak again of Miss Klumpke's musical ability, she has studied in European countries, including the cities of Paris, Vienna, Brussels and other places famous for their musical masters.

The entertainment was held on the terrace and with the vine-covered lanai as a stage and the moon, at its full, lent enchantment to the evening. Miss Klumpke played each number with perfect technique and feeling. She was accompanied by Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock, who played in her usual fine style. Mrs. William Henry Fry, whose rich contralto voice has already won favor with Honolulu audiences, was encored several times, as was Mr. Arthur F. Wall.

Following is the program of the evening:

Judge and Mrs. E. H. Gary Entertained by Her Majesty At Poi Supper.

Punalani, the residence of the Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole at Waikiki, was the scene of one of the most memorable of the season's entertainments, when Queen Liliuokalani entertained in honor of Judge and Mrs. E. H. Gary of New York on Monday evening. The supper was given in the great grass covered lanai on the lawn of Punalani. The table was in the shape of a horse shoe and the color scheme was red and yellow carried out artistically with yellow lilies and red iboras in the drawing rooms and with red African daisies and yellow gladiolus in the lanai, where supper was served.

The daisies were strewn with maidenhair fern the length of the table, and the guests were seated at the outside of the horseshoe, the center or inside being massed with collardums ranging from green to red in color. When the guests entered the lanai a Hawaiian quintet struck up hula music, and the malihinis gazed in wonderment at the old-time dances, which were most gracefully portrayed by eight Hawaiian girls. The quintet played through the dinner and after, when the party resorted to bridge. Among those present were: Queen Liliuokalani, Judge and Mrs. E. H. Gary, Mr. and Mrs. McNeil, Mrs. Hubert Vos, the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. John Dominis, Senator and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mayor and Mrs. John Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Lauke, Colonel Sam Parker, and the Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole.

Those who were seated about the flower-laden table Wednesday were Mesdames Gerrit Wilder, Herman Focke, Mountford S. Wilson, Willard Drown, Walter S. Porter, Daniel C. Jackling, John S. Drum, Henry Foster Dutton, Miss Ethel Cooper, San Francisco Chronicle.
